A PRETTY MESS.

A Police Officer Charged With Beating Houses to Colored Frontiers.

The two negro women, Mollie White and Willie Daugherty, who were arrested on the charge of keeping a house of ill-fame, were tried before Commissioner Greenman yesterday.

W. C. Kelly entered a demurrer on the grounds that a United States commissioner had no jurisdiction over offenses which were in violation of city ordinances, which was overruled by Judge Greenman.

Charles Hattie, who figured in the police court a few days since as complainant against a negro who had cut him, testified that his saloon on Commercial street was under the control of the "dusky demes."

He was asked if he knew who had the renting of the house, and he said a man named Anderson.

"And who does he rent it to?"

"He sold me the rent it to Bruce Johnson, a police officer."

This reply created somewhat of a sensation in the court.

He was asked what kind of tenants the women were, and said the court that they were anything but good and peaceful, by stating that they accused themselves by throwing drunken men down stairs frequently, and rows were of almost nightly occurrence.

After the why maidens had testified as to their excellent respectability, and it had been demonstrated, after vigorous objections by their attorneys, that they had been arrested on the same charge before, the commissioner said he was satisfied of their guilt and fined them $25 each and costs.

Mr. Kelly gave notice of an appeal, and bond was fixed at $200.

IT WAS UTAH'S DAY

EDWARDS MADE THE MARE GO

Carriage's J. J. S. Wins the 2:35 Trot and Makes the Salt Lake's Even in the Pools.

THE RESULT.

2:35 trot—won by J. J. S. in three straight heats. Best time—2:25.

2:30 pace—won by Maggie H. in the seventh heat. Time—2:25.

It was Utah's day.

Both races were won by Utah horses.

Ogden's famous finished, the black and white mare, made the race of her life, winning the 2:30 pace in the seventh heat over Geraldine.

This was the most extraordinary contest in the history of the turf and without a parallel in racing annals.

When the horses came up for the fifth heat Maggie H. and Geraldine had paced two dead heats and were credited with first and third place in a heat each, leaving them stand a tie in the honors. Yesterday was the day when the mare and the gelding were in better condition than on any previous afternoon.

The grand stand was crowded to the top.

The ladies turned out in full force and gave the occasion a touch of "dash" and excitement, which would have been sadly lacking had they remained away.

Early 2:30 spectators were in attendance when the horses were called for the first race.

Maggie H., Lydia Allen, Jaysey and Geraldine made the entries for the 2:30 pace and took the post in the order named at 2:15 o'clock.

After starting twice, they got well under way and speeded smoothly along till the turn was reached; here Jaysey "broke" to pieces and fell two hundred yards behind. Maggie H. and Lydia Allen were bunched on the quarter when the race was reached, and as they swung past in 1:12, she looked for a moment like a winner.

It was a hot race for the three-quarters, and it looked as though Maggie H. and Lydia Allen would pass the third stake neck and neck; but the mare disappointed her backers by breaking badly, and thereby forfeiting her chances for first place. As they swung past in the stretch Maggie H. was setting the pace and had things her own way.

She won in a jog, three lengths ahead of Lydia Allen, Geraldine third and Jaysey filling the fourth hole.

The mile was made in 2:27.

After the horses' choice selections were rendered by the crowd, the race was commenced by the crowd of spectators.

another long intermission, went from under the wire both together. At the quarter (30:5) Geraldine had the best of it by a neck, but the gap was somewhat loosened by the time the half was passed. Geraldine was still leading, but only by a nose, and reached the stake in 1:10:5. Ogden's black mare was gaining strength, and George Edwards, his owner, who used to be a bookkeeper for the Ogden Woodmen and Willow company, let out a couple of links in the ribbons, and at the three-quarters (1:30) was neck and neck with the bay. As they entered the stretch, Geraldine got tired, and her driver, "Dutch Dave," urged her a little too much in his eagerness to win, and she broke badly and galloped all the way home. Maggie H. won the heat very handsily in 2:25, and set the talent guessing for the next heat.

SEVENTH HEAT.

Geraldine had a nose the best of it when the wire was left and maintained her lead to the quarter (37). Maggie H., however, was only holding back and began creeping up, and finally drew even with the bay mare. The half was passed in 1:10:5 and there was a double team race to the three-quarters (1:30).

Here Geraldine again gave up and the black witch drew away from her. As they came into the stretch the California mare stopped like an eight-day clock and Maggie came under the wire in an easy jog, winner of the heat and $750 purse.

The mile was traversed in 2:30.

Paris Mutuals paid as follows on each heat: $100, $75, $50, $25, $10, $5, $2.50, $1.25.

On the first heat in the pools Bird brought $10, J. J. S. $8, Nevada $3 and McGregor $2.

A Young Lady Killed at Pleasant Grove.

Miss Roxie Rogers Needs Her Death from the Accidental Discharge of a Gun.

Last night a telephone message was received from Pleasant Grove to the effect that Miss Roxie Rogers had been accidentally killed by Guy Robinson, who is well known in this city and a former student of the University.

Particulars are meagre, but it was learned that a drill in which guns were used was in progress when the weapon was accidentally discharged, killing the young lady almost instantly.

Robinson is utterly prostrated over the sad affair.

SALT LAKE SCORES.

The Train Dispatchers Will Come Here.

June of Next Year Will Be a Memorable Month—Recent Rio Grande Movements.

Burke Spencer has pushed the button now let the citizens of Salt Lake do the rest.

The Train Dispatchers' association of America, several hundred strong, will meet in this city next June.

One year ago Mr. Spencer endeavored to convince the members of the Train Dispatchers' association that their next meeting should be held in this city. There were many, however, who had pledged to vote for some southern point, and so New Orleans was selected, with the assurance, however, on the part of a great number that they would vote for Salt Lake at this year's meeting. Mr. Spencer went to New Orleans armed with invitations from the chamber of commerce, the city council and other influential and prominent citizens, and also with a very full list of eloquent speeches. The result was that the association selected Salt Lake as its place of meeting in 1892, as is evidenced by the following dispatch received yesterday:

A. L. Thomas, Governor of Utah: The next annual convention of our association will be held in your city. I take pleasure in expressing our appreciation of your cordial invitation, and we are assured of a royal western entertainment.

J. E. Down, Secretary of Train Dispatchers' Association of America.

Secretary Sears of the chamber of commerce also received this:

NEW ORLEANS, La., June 16, 1892. S. W. Sears, Chamber of Commerce: The generous support of your chamber has secured our meeting in your city. Spencer has good representation of your city.

J. E. Down, Secretary.

A Good Move for the Rio Grande.

The Colorado Midland railway, although its western terminus is at Grand Junction, where it connects with the Rio Grande Western, is apparently desirous of cultivating friendly relations with this territory, and in order to accommodate the traveling community, recently arranged a time card with the Rio Grande Western, whereby the evening train from Ogden and Salt Lake arrives at Denver the following evening, Kansas City the next morning and Chicago the next morning, and has now shortened its time in connection with the Rio Grande Western, whereby, commencing June 19, the morning train No. 1 from Ogden and Salt Lake city, will arrive at Denver the following morning at 8:45 a. m., arriving at Chicago the next day at 11:15 p. m. For instance, leaving Ogden or Salt Lake city Saturday morning, the train will arrive in Denver Sunday morning and in Chicago Monday afternoon at 2:15 p. m. In making this arrangement with the fast trains for all the eastern cities.

The Rio Grande Western and Colorado Midland are undoubtedly in this front row and their commendable efforts in looking after matters of comfort, speed and safety for their patrons will no doubt be appreciated by the Utah people, as these famous lines are now offering to the people at least, and in some instances faster time than made by any other roads, combined with the advantages of scenic attractions which are offered by no other line in the United States.

It Is Chairman Caldwell.

Chicago, June 17.—The Western Passenger association today decided upon chairman, D. B. Caldwell, assistant general passenger agent of the Missouri Pacific, being selected. "Caldwell accepted and will assume his duties next week." He is the youngest man who ever held this position, being only 33 years of age. He has practically grown up in the passenger business, beginning with the Vandavia road.
